So What Are Qualities That Make Me Irresistible To Women?

I have studied countless books on sales, marketing, and human interaction. One thing that I've learned is that human beings are inherently drawn to unique, dominant, and charismatic people. They are drawn to unique, dominant, and charismatic things. You need to start thinking about yourself in this way. If you embody these characteristics, you will have women flocking to you by the dozens.

REMEMBER, YOU WANT TO BE THE SELECTOR NOT THE SELECTEE!

ATTRACT WOMEN, DO NOT RUN AFTER THEM! Stand out from other people. Be different and unique in a way that is attractive to women.

Do not be too weird though, as this will throw you into the wacko category. After you read the list of attractive qualities, start practicing the ones that seem the easiest for you or come naturally to you. As you become more comfortable, move on to the next category and so on and so forth.

There are some qualities that women find attractive that are out of your control. Women like men based on their physical looks and height. Women like men because they are famous, which can also make them powerful in various aspects of life. Women like men who have money, nice things, and can provide them with nice things. Now, you could become any of these things, but for argument sake, lets just say they aren't going to happen anytime soon.

You can however, change certain aspects of your personality to become more attractive to women. The best thing about this is that strong personality characteristics are the greatest tool for men when it comes to having success with women. Women like to feel attraction. They like to feel something around a man that they can't explain right away, if ever. What they will end up feeling is the presence of a strong, confident, male personality that makes them warm and comfortable all over.

Personality Traits That Instantly Attract Women To Men

- FUNNY – Who doesn't like being around somebody that can make them laugh? Everybody likes to laugh. When you can make a girl laugh, she feels safe, happy, and comfortable. Women love this quality in men.

- CONFIDENT – Self confidence is so sexy to women. Women want a man that stands tall, knows what he wants, and gets it.

- UN-NEEDY/LAID BACK – Most men meet a woman and immediately are all over her. They chase her around, call her, and bother her. This is not a good thing. Try pretending like you don't care. Call her and act like you could be doing something better. When you are talking to her at the bar, sit back in your seat and talk to her like you would anyone else. Show small signs that you are interested, but don't go too far with it. If a woman isn't sure if you like her or want to sleep with her, she will end up trying that much harder to get you to like her. It is a strong move.

- WELL GROOMED/DRESSED - Women want men that have style and are well dressed. The clothes don't have to be expensive. You just need to have a good look that fits your personality. You also need to have nice shoes. Women love shoes. If you don't know how to dress, or want the clothes that would look the best on you, have a girl take you shopping. One, they know what they are doing, and two, they love doing it! To them, it's like dressing a grown up doll.

Hygiene is also extremely important guys. This might seem like a no brainer to you, but you would be surprised how many guys overlook this part of attraction. Keep your hair groomed, wear nice cologne (you can also have a woman pick this out for you), always have fresh breath, keep your fingernails clean, and always wear clean clothes. It can never hurt to be in shape, or at least keep your body in decent condition.

- INTELLIGENT – Being an intelligent man is sexy to women. You don't want to bore her with geometry and space travel talk though, unless that is what she is in to. Be interesting and intelligent in a way that she can relate to and feel engaged in. Being charming to her with your ideas and feelings will surely turn her on to you.
- POSITIVE ATTITUDE/FUN – Again, who doesn't want to be around someone that is fun, where you can laugh with each other any time you are together? This is one of the more important qualities to possess if you want to attract the ladies. Women love being comfortable and feeling safe, and laughter and happiness will give them this feeling. If a woman is happy, don't bring her down to make her feel bad or to have control over her. Doing this is a huge no-no. Positive attitudes always make people around you feel better.

- HUMILITY – There might not be a bigger turnoff than an arrogant prick. Even if you are rich or good looking, or have a great personality, it is important to be humble about it. Don't be the idiot who needs to brag about it because that is a major sign of insecurity and women will pick up on it big time.
- CHALLENGING – Women want that challenge of getting a guy. This is so important! Guys think they need to give it up immediately or kiss a girl's butt until it's strawberry red. This couldn't be farther from the truth. Women need uncertainty, teasing, and game playing. Make them confused about how you feel about them. Remember, women operate on emotion. The more their emotions go up and down, the more female they feel and the more they will want you.

- GREAT COMMUNICATOR – You need to be able to express yourself with words. You need to be able to express yourself emotionally. This is also a sign of intelligence when you have the know-with-all to do this.

- CREATIVE – This can cover a wide range of things. You could be a good painter, a musician, a good joke teller, a good writer, or someone with a quick wit. Anything that shows a sign of creativity is super hot to women.

- CREATE YOUR OWN REALITY – this is very important. Women love a guy who is aggressive and dominant, setting goals, achieving them, and continuing to stay driven. Since women operate very much on emotion, they want a man who remains in control, not letting detours or other outside factors affect him.
- SEXUAL ABILITY – Guys, we aren't the only ones who love sex. Women like it just as much as us. Women are turned on by a man that knows what he is doing in the bedroom. Women will be hooked if you can please her, and teach her new things that make sexual activity better and more exciting.

If you take note of these characteristics and start applying them to your life, you will start noticing awesome results with women immediately!
